PT-D450

PT-D450 electronic labeller can create durable fade resistant labels by using easy-to-use integrated labelling functions and print directly from PC or Mac OS® systems.

Using built-in label design functions, large easy-to-read backlight LCD display and wide PC style keyboard, it enables labels to be printed in various sizes and colours.

This high specification electronic labeller is an ideal labelling tool that can help offices stay organised through clear identification of important items using durable TZe laminated labels.
