

This sheet should be printed onto iron-on transfer paper designed for use with ink jet printers (available at most business supply stores).

Cut out the two strips above. Cut just inside the dotted lines so that the lines won't show up on your transfer.

Lay out two long white tube socks. Place one strip along the length of each sock and iron transfer according to the instructions that came with your iron on sheets.