

ZENIT Sideboard

Designer: Andrea Bonini

Year: 2020

DESCRIPTION

In the Zenit sideboard the structure and the curved leather clad doors embrace a central one in wood, and the tops are contrasting with wood and marble, one on top of the other creating a double top. Overlapping layers is a characteristic of the entire collection, strongly evident in the shelves or the doors of the storage units. The sideboard is available in different finishes as per sample book.
